SPECTACLED AMERICANS

The man of sense is he who best preserves those faculties with which Nature has endowed him.

He may "hate to wear glasses," but sentiment is not sense.

Glasses are not always an evidence of weak eyes, but rather of strong intellect.

Men and women of strength, both mental and physical, wear them for the preservation of nerve force and vitality, as much as for the betterment of vision.

FORETOLD MISFORTUNE

The day before Miss Hazel Buckland, daughter of C. R. Buckland, started from San Francisco on the Alameda on Sept. 20th, she had her palm read by a fortune teller who predicted that she would soon leave on a long trip and meet with some misfortune. Another passenger on the wrecked vessel was L. Barkhausen, who also had his fortune told in the Golden Gate city and who was warned against accidents.

After the wreck of the Alameda Miss Buckland called on the palmist and related the details of the ship striking the rocks and thanking the woman for her foresight.
